Costa Blanca Beach Vibes - Sandy or Stony?

Here's a look at some beautiful towns along Costa Blanca and what kind of beaches they offer:

Benidorm - Long sandy beaches, lively promenade, ideal for social and active lifestyle.

Altea - Mostly stone and pebbly beaches, but incredibly charming with white houses and a calm vibe.

Calpe - A mix of sandy beaches like Playa de la Fossa and rocky coves with views of the Peñón de Ifach.

Villajoyosa - Quiet, authentic charm with sandy and mixed beaches, plus a colorful old town.

Moraira - Mostly rocky and pebbly coves, great for snorkelers and those seeking natural beauty.

Javea - A combination of soft sand (Arenal Beach) and rocky inlets - ideal for relaxed and upscale living.

Wherever you choose, there's a corner of the coast for every soul - whether you love soft sand or wild stones under your feet
